Sydney Albaugh belted two home runs Friday as Kirkwood smashed Ellsworth, 15-1, in five innings in the first round of the regional softball tournament at Kirkwood.

The seventh-ranked Eagles (45-13) will face 20th-ranked NIACC (29-16) in the winners bracket finals Saturday at 2 p.m.

Albaugh went 2-for-3 with her two homers and four RBIs. Lauren Kuch was 3-for-4 with a double, home run and six RBIs. Taleah Smith was 2-for-3 and scored twice. Shelby Hulsebus and Rachel Stewart also scored twice. Lauren Klaahsen hit a solo home run.

Erin Hocker (24-7) and Bradee Bouman shared the pitching. Hocker ranks second in the country with her 24 victories, just one victory behind the national leader.
