Jheda Kennedy moved into the starting lineup at point guard Wednesday night and played 33 minutes to help No. 4 Kirkwood defeat Southeastern, 67-46, in an ICCAC conference game at Johnson Hall.

Kennedy scored 13 points as the Eagles raised their records to 26-3 overall and 13-2 in the conference heading into the final game of the regular season Saturday.

Starting point guard Ju Gaston and star center Paige Bradford missed the game due to illness, leaving Coach Kim Muhl with only nine players in uniform.

Kemara Watson, Kortney Drake and Natalie Tomaszewski matched Kennedy with 13 points for the Eagles. Tomaszewski also had nine rebounds, three blocks, two assists and a steal.

Emma Knipe scored 18 points for Southeastern (17-12, 8-7).
