Two future members of the Iowa State men's basketball program will play in Cedar Rapids Tuesday night when 10th-ranked Indian Hills faces Kirkwood at Johnson Hall.

Richard Amardi, 6-foot-9, from Canada and Dustin Hogue, 6-5, from New York signed with the Cyclones last month.

Tipoff is scheduled for 7 p.m.

Indian Hills (8-1) is averaging 103 points per game and has topped 100 points on five occasions, with high games of 118 and 117.

The Warriors beat Kirkwood, 94-89, in Ottumwa on Nov. 3.

Indian Hills has five players who have signed with NCAA Division I schools for next season. Jameel McKay, 6-8, has signed with Marquette. Trinson White, 6-5, has signed with Wisconsin-Milwaukee. Jalan Kendrick, 6-6, has signed with UNLV.

McKay leads Indian Hills at 14.8 points and 11.7 rebounds per game.
