

Kernels set daily specials for 2013 campaign

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 09 March 2013 20:37 -

The Cedar Rapids Kernels will be offering a special promotion every day of the week this season.

Run The Bases Sunday, presented by 104.5 KDAT, returns at the ballpark. Fans can get autographs from Kernels players, run the bases and play catch in the outfield following home games on Sundays.

Fans can enjoy Papa Balloon and Face Painting by Kennedy on the concourse during Sunday games as well. They also can play Travel Advisors Baseball Vacation Bingo to win a trip to a Minnesota Twins game.

A new special this year will be Dollar Mondays, where a regular hotdog, small popcorn, ice cream sandwich, chips and Cracker Jack are just $1 for every Monday home game.

Twins Tuesday, presented by Great Clips, will offer fans a 2-for-1 ticket deal with an online coupon from the Kernels Facebook Page or e-mail newsletter. The Kernels will wear replica Minnesota Twins road jerseys during the game and fans can register to win a pair of Twins tickets that will be given away at each Tuesday home game.

Another new promotion is Free Money Wednesday. As much as $1,000 will be given away at the main gates for every Wednesday home game, with $100 the top cash prize each game.

A fan favorite returns this year with Thirsty Thursday, presented by Z 102.9. Fans can get a 12-ounce regular draft beer, a 20-ounce bottled soda or a 20-ounce bottled water for $2 all game.

The Kernels Friday Mug Club returns for 2013, presented by 98.1 KHAK. Fans can buy a 16-ounce reusable mug of regular draft beer for $6 and get refills for $3.

Kernels set daily specials for 2013 campaign

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 09 March 2013 20:37 -

There will be postgame fireworks shows on nine Saturdays this year as well.