The Cedar Rapids Kernels and Minnesota Twins announced Friday that third baseman T.J. White has been promoted to the Fort Myers Miracle of the Florida State League.

White played in 74 games for the Kernels, batting .230 with 10 doubles, five triples and 26 RBIs. He was selected by the Twins in the 18th round of the 2014 draft from UNLV.

The Twins did not announce a corresponding move to replace White on the Cedar Rapids roster.
