EASTLAKE, Ohio - The Lake County Captains scored three runs in the bottom of the eighth inning to snap a 3-3 tie and defeat the Cedar Rapids Kernels, 6-3, before 2,430 fans at Classic Park in Ohio Wednesday afternoon.

Both clubs had only five hits in the game, but the Captains made theirs count.

Tanner English and T.J. White had RBIs for the Kernels. English scored two runs and had two stolen bases, giving him 37 steals for the campaign.

Felix Jorge was touched for three runs in six innings. Jared Wilson (5-4) surrendered all three runs in the eighth inning and took the loss.

Bobby Bradley and Anthony Santander hit home runs for Lake County.

The Kernels (67-48) and Captains (57-55) meet again Thursday night at 6.
