WINTER HAVEN, Fla. - The Coe baseball team swept a doubleheader from Roger Williams, 5-4 and 7-6, Saturday with clutch hitting in Winter Haven, Fla.

The Kohawks (3-0) erupted for five runs in the fifth inning of the opener to take a 5-1 lead. Jory Heckenberg delivered a three-run triple and Michael Redmond had an RBI single in the big frame. Redmond was 3-for-3 in the ballgame.

Connor Alberhasky pitched a complete game for the victory in the opener, allowing only one earned run on four hits. He struck out seven batters and walked only two.

Coe scored two runs in the top of the seventh inning of the nightcap to grab a 7-6 lead. Grant Henning tied the game, 6-6, with an RBI triple and Thomas Simon followed with an RBI double.

Thomas Schaedel got the victory in Game 2 with four strong innings in relief. Ben Jacobson pitched the bottom of the seventh inning for the save.

Redmond, Grant Henning and Simon all had three hits in the nightcap. Cole Tomlinson drove in three runs and Simon had two RBIs.
