AUBURNDALE, Fla. - The Coe baseball team posted its first two wins of the season Monday, sweeping a doubleheader from Husson College.

The Kohawks got a complete game from Thomas Schaedel in the opener, winning 10-1 before hanging on for a 5-4 win in the nightcap.

Schaedel struck out nine and walked two in his seven-inning outing. He allowed one run on seven hits. Catcher Grant Henning had a home run and drove home three runs. Henning, former Linn-Mar standout Michael Redmond, Craig Konrardy and Alec Zwanziger each had two hits for Coe (2-1). Zwanziger also drove home three runs.

In the nightcap, Coe jumped to a 4-0 lead with four in the top of the first and held on from there.

Ben Larison had three hits and two RBI for the Kohawks. Konrardy and Henning each had a pair of hits.

David Keaton got the win for Coe, allowing four hits and three runs over four innings. Lucas Robbins pitched the final three innings to pick up the save.

Coe continues play on its Florida trip Tuesday with games against Oglethorpe University and Beloit College.
