AUBURNDALE, Fla. – Ben Jacobson pitched a three-hitter to lead the Coe baseball team to a 2-1 win over Beloit on Thursday at Lake Myrtle Park.

Jacobson allowed two walks with nine strikeouts for his first win of the season.

Michael Redmond hit 2-for-3 with a triple, and Andrew Brierton hit 2-for-4 for the Kohawks (4-1).

Brierton singled in the top of the ninth inning, advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt by Alec Zwanziger, advanced to third on an error and scored the winning run on a sacrifice fly by Dan Urban.

Beloit fell to 3-2.
