Coe junior Mickey Hansche has been named the Female Athlete of the Week by the Iowa Conference.

Hansche averaged 21.7 points in three games last week with 27 against Mount Mercy, 22 against Wisconsin-La Crosse and 16 against MacMurray.

Hansche set a school record for 3-point percentage in a single game when she went 7-for-9 against Mount Mercy for 77.8 percent. She hit her first seven triples in that game before missing.

Aleena Hobbs from the Coe basketball team was named the Female Athlete of the Week last week, giving the Kohawks both honors since the season began.
