DUBUQUE - The Coe College men's golf team cut eight strokes off its first round score on Sunday, as the Kohawks finished eighth at the Dubuque Fall Invite.

Senior Tyler Gunderson led the way for the Kohawks, as he shot a season-low 74 on Sunday. His 153 for the two days gave him a sixth place finish. It was the 17th top-10 finish of his career.

Sophomore Anthony Worden shot an 89 on Sunday, as he finished 36th with a 174 over the two days.

Simpson's Trent Lindeman was the medalist with a 1-over-par 141.
