PELLA - Former Linn-Mar standout Emily Saville scored the tie-breaking goal in the 86th minute to give Central a 3-2 Iowa Conference women's soccer victory Wednesday over Coe.

Saville's goal saved the day for the Dutch, who saw a 2-0 lead disappear in the second half. After a scoreless first half, Brittany Hinton scored in the 49th and 54th minute to give Central a 2-0 lead.

Coe rallied to tie the match on goals from former Kennedy standout Jordan Holmes (73rd minute) and Danica Mason (79th minute). Sarah Fathallah and Katilyn Yanecek had assists on the Kohawk goals.

Central is 6-4-2, 2-1 in the IIAC. Coe falls to 5-6, 1-2.
