INDIANOLA – The Coe women's soccer team improved to 14-1-1 with a 2-1 win over Simpson on Friday.

The match remained scoreless through the first 65 minutes.

Simpson's Mackenzie Stump broke the scoreless tie in the 66th minute, but the Kohawks answered with two quick goals. Keira Frederito scored off an assist by Kelsey Fauser in the 72nd minute, and Sarah Fathallah scored off an assist from Ashlyn Moos in the 79th minute.

Goalie MJ Winterer had eight saves for Coe as the Kohawks out-shot the Storm 12-9.

Coe is 4-1 in the IIAC. Simpson fell to 3-12 overall and 0-5 in the league.
