Coe freshman Sam Fitzgerald has been named the Iowa Conference's Women's Swimming and Diving Athlete of the Week.

Fitzgerald, a Linn-Mar graduate, won three events in a 132-69 dual win over Nebraska Wesleyan on Friday, setting the school record in the 100 breaststroke (1:09.64), posting the sixth-quickest time in the 50 freestyle (25.55) and competing on Coe's winning 200 freestyle relay (1:45.59).

She also swam in Coe's double-dual split against the Prairie Wolves and Franklin on Saturday, placing second in the 400 IM (5:06.33), third in the 200 backstroke (2:34.28), and swimming on Coe's third-place 400 medley relay (4:25.11).
