

Anderson makes semis of regional tennis

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 03 October 2015 20:37 -

ST. PETER, Minn. - Brady Anderson of Coe College will face top-seeded Jake Humphreys of Wisconsin-Whitewater in the semifinals of the ITA Midwest Regional tennis tournament Saturday morning in St. Peter, Minn.

Anderson, a sophomore from Linn-Mar, is seeded No. 4 in the tournament. He won both of his matches Saturday, giving him a 5-0 record in the tournament so far. He outlasted ninth-seeded Grant Thompson of Wisconsin-Whitewater in a tiebreaker in the quarterfinals, 6-2, 0-6, 7-6.

The championship match in men's singles is scheduled for Sunday at noon.

Anderson and Josh Pudlo of Coe lost in the quarterfinals of men's doubles Saturday to Humphreys and Michael Tries of Wisconsin-Whitewater, 8-2.