DUBUQUE - Loras College was too hot and too balanced for Coe Wednesday night in an Iowa Conference men's basketball game in Dubuque.

The Duhawks shot a sizzling 67.3 percent from the field and saw five players score in double figures in a 94-65 victory over the Kohawks.

Loras made 37 of 55 shots overall and was 9 for 19 on 3-pointers. Coe shot 40.4 percent from the field and made only two 3-pointers.

Alex Cline and Mirko Grcic scored 13 points apiece for Loras (9-5, 2-1).

Andrew Wirth scored 11 points for Coe (9-5, 1-2). JT Vonderhaar added 10 points.
