

Coe soccer players earn IIAC honors

Written by Metro Sports Report
Monday, 29 September 2014 18:03 -

Brittini Viehman and MJ Winterer from the Coe women's soccer team have been named Athletes of the Week by the Iowa Conference.

Viehman, a junior forward from Shorewood, Ill., scored the only goal as Coe upset 22nd-ranked Luther, 1-0, and was named the Offensive Player of the Week in women's soccer. It was her only shot of the game.

Winterer, a freshman from Omaha, made seven saves in goal for the Kohawks in their victory over Luther and was named the Defensive Player of the Week.

Amy Sebastian of Coe received special mention in women's tennis.