LAS VEGAS - The No. 10 Coe wrestling team downed three foes Monday before losing to a fourth by criteria in the Desert Duals.

Coe downed No. 6 Alma, 23-16, then took down No. 16 Baldwin Wallace, 19-16 and unranked St. John's 39-12. The Kohawks' fourth match with No. 14 Johnson & Wales ended in a 19-19 tie, but Johnson & Wales was awarded one more point for having the most falls.

Top-ranked Farai Sewera had two pins, a technical fall and a decision in winning all four of his matches at 165.
