NORTHFIELD, Minn. - Aleena Hobbs poured in 19 points and Mickey Hansche tossed in six 3-pointers and scored 18 points as the Coe women's basketball team cruised by Carleton College, 77-39, at West Gym Saturday.

The Kohawks raised their record to 9-2 for the third time in school history.

Coe enjoyed one of the best shooting performances from 3-point range in school history. The Kohawks hit 13 of 23 for 56.5 percent, matching the third-most triples and the third-best percentage in school annals.

It was the eighth time Hansche has made at least six 3-pointers in a game.

Jenna Lehman contributed 11 points and five assists for Coe. Courteney McCrary scored 10 points.

Michele Arima scored 13 points for Carleton (3-8).
