WINTER HAVEN, Fla. - Senior shortstop Craig Konrardy had three hits and Zach Kammin pitched six strong innings, leading the Coe baseball team to a 4-1 win Tuesday morning over Oglethorpe.

Nolan Arp added a pair of hits for the Kohawks (3-1). Andrew Brierton and Dan Urban each had RBI singles in Coe's two-run sixth inning that saw the Kohawks break a 1-1 tie.

Kammin allowed two hits and one run, striking out four and walking four. Tyler Smith pitched three solid innings of relief to pick up the save.
