

Mustangs finish 3-1 at Chicago tourney

Written by Metro Sports Report
Saturday, 13 September 2014 20:29 -

CHICAGO - The Mount Mercy University volleyball team finished with a 3-1 record at the Chicago State Tournament after splitting two matches Saturday.

The Mustangs defeated Purdue North Central, 25-12, 25-14, 25-12, and lost to Chicago State, 25-18, 24-26, 25-23, 25-13.

Megan Paustian had nine kills against Purdue North Central. Lori Peterzalek had 14 digs and seven kills. Demi Heiss contributed seven kills. Abbie Perez collected 19 assists and Leslie Hoffmann had eight blocked shots.

Paustian and Heiss finished with 10 kills against Chicago State. Perez had 23 assists, Samantha Meyer had 20 digs, Emily Hendrickson pitched in with 12 assists and Hannah Whitley had 10 digs.

Mount Mercy (6-0) won both of its matches at the tournament Friday.