

Mustangs spiked by Central Methodist

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 04 November 2018 06:12 -

FAYETTE, Mo. - The Mount Mercy women's volleyball team lost to 21st-ranked Central Methodist, 25-22, 25-13, 25-19, in the quarterfinals of the Heart of America Conference tournament Saturday.

The Mustangs finished the season with a 20-14 record. Central Methodist advanced to the semifinals with a 29-5 mark.

Maddie Bell and Alyssa Weldon led Mount Mercy with nine kills. Caiti Peterson collected 29 assists. Lauren Stopko had 12 digs.

Stopko finished her career with 2,550 digs, an all-time school record.