OSKALOOSA - The Mount Mercy Mustangs defeated William Penn, 2-1, in a marathon shootout in the quarterfinals of the Midwest Collegiate Conference men's soccer tournament Sunday.

The Mustangs won the shootout, 12-11, and will face St. Ambrose in the conference semifinals next Sunday.

Marco Fichtner gave Mount Mercy a 1-0 lead in the 39th minute with an unassisted goal. William Penn tied the match, 1-1, on a goal by Ralph Duopu-Turner in the 88th minute.

The shootout was tied, 11-11, after 12 shooters. William Penn's 13th man went first and was unable to connect, and Mount Mercy won the match when its 13th man found the goal.

Mount Mercy raised its record to 11-6-2. William Penn finished the season at 7-7-4.

Goar Kempf-Heitlinger made 10 saves during regulation time for the Mustangs.
