

Mount Mercy wins soccer matches

Written by Metro Sports Report
Sunday, 30 August 2015 16:06 -

WHITING, Ind. - The Mount Mercy soccer teams won their consolation matches at the Crimson Wave Invitational in Indiana Sunday.

The Mount Mercy women trimmed Saint Mary-of-the-Woods, 2-1. Megan Hall scored an unassisted goal for the Mustangs and Aminah Baloch had the game-winning tally with an assist from Annie Feltes.

The Mount Mercy men defeated Marian, 2-1, in overtime on an unassisted goal by Marco Fichtner. Yinka Ajibola also had an unassisted goal for the Mustangs.

The Mount Mercy women have a 3-2 record. The men have a 1-2 mark.