The Mount Mercy men's soccer team scored four straight goals in the second half Wednesday and defeated St. Ambrose, 5-2, at the Xavier High School field.

St. Ambrose led 2-1 in the second half, but the Mustangs surged to victory on goals by Timon Weidmann, Felix Budde, Marco Fichtner and Kevon Farquharson. Mount Mercy's first score came on an "own goal" in the first half.

Fichtner collected two assists for Mount Mercy and Farquharson had one assist. Fichtner scored on a penalty kick.
