FOREST CITY - Mount Mercy and Waldorf were fit to be tied Saturday.

The two schools played a soccer doubleheader in Forest City and both matches ended in 1-1 ties in double overtime. The men's game ended in a 1-1 tie and the women's contest ended in a 1-1 tie. Both matches lasted 110 minutes and featured defenses.

The Mount Mercy men trailed, 1-0, until Duarte Leite scored in the 66th minute to square the match with an assist from Kevin Kastl. Dane Lee played the final 65 minutes in goal for the Mustangs and helped keep Waldorf off the scoreboard during that time.

The Mount Mercy women also trailed, 1-0, until Melany Roggow scored in the 48th minute with an assist from Carly Walker. Grace Byers played all 110 minutes in goal for the Mustangs and made 10 saves.

The outcomes left the Mount Mercy men's soccer team at 3-2-1 for the campaign and left the Mount Mercy women at 1-6-1.
