WILLIAMSBURG 3-12, NORWAY 2-2

In what league officials called an "historic event," the Williamsburg Red Sox swept Norway on the road just three weeks after sweeping Watkins on the road for four victories against traditional IVL powers.

Williamsburg and Norway were tied, 2-2, heading into the top of the ninth inning in the opener. Garrett Saunders and Nolan Arp collected back-to-back doubles for Williamsburg in the ninth and Travis Bowman retired the side in the bottom of the ninth for the 3-2 victory.

Ryan Arp pitched the first five innings for Williamsburg in the opener and Bowman tossed the last four innings.

Oswaldo Calderon scored both runs for Norway and Ron Benich had two hits for the Bandits.

Williamsburg scored nine runs in the fifth inning of the nightcap on four hits, three walks and three hit-batters, along with wild pitches, errors and a balk. Nolan Arp had a big three-run single for the Red Sox in the 12-2 triumph.
