

Washington rallies past J-Hawk bowlers

Written by Metro Sports Report
Friday, 09 December 2011 22:54 -

Quincy Bruce had the line for the Washington boys bowlers Friday at Lancer Lanes, rolling games of 266 and 221 for a 487 series that helped the Warriors past Jefferson, 2922-2888, in a Mississippi Valley Conference meet.

Jefferson held a 49-pin lead after the first round when Dan Britton, Austin Kluth and Will James rolled series of 468, 439 and 408, respectively for the J-Hawks.

Kyle Kaness had a 230 high game and 434 series to help keep the Warriors close.

The Warriors beat the J-Hawks by 83 pins in the Baker round.

JEFFERSON (2888): Dan Britton 256-468, Austin Kluth 236-439, Will James 205-408, Michael Kilts 199-391, Victor Baccam 195-337, Sean Ely 171-306.

WASHINGTON (2922): Quincy Bruce 266-487, Kyle Kaness 230-434, Bryan Cline 196-384, Zach Christensen 217-347, Jay Niblick 191-342, Robert Burman 161-305.

First round - Jefferson 2043, Washington 1994. Baker round - Washington 928, Jefferson 845