The fifth-ranked Jefferson J-Hawks won both of their games at their own tournament Saturday.

The J-Hawks topped North Cedar, 8-3, and clipped Springville, 7-1.

Alissa Good went 3-for-3 and was the winning pitcher against North Cedar. Kennedy Dighton went 2-for-3 with two RBIs. Lindsey Culver socked a home run.

Tori Brandon went 3-for-4 with two RBIs in the victory over Springville. Avery Guy and Maddie Hansen were 2-for-3. Alyssa Olson was the winning pitcher with seven strikeouts.

The victories lifted Jefferson to 23-6 for the campaign.
