IOWA CITY -- Jefferson could not get past second-round foes from Iowa City West and Muscatine on Thursday at the girls regional tennis tournament.

West's Addy Riley won the singles title over teammate Olivia Lofgren. The West doubles team of Lill Oetting and Lola White-Baer also won, beating Muscatine's Angie Allgood and Hannah Eichelberger.

Riley defeated Jefferson's Anna Striegel and Lofgren beat the J-Hawks' Megan Smothers in second round singles matches. Smothers beat Katie Hicks of Ottumwa in the first round and Striegel had a bye.

Both Jefferson doubles teams -- Veroonica Day/Crystal Terman and Alyssa Dlouhy/Kelli Walsh -- won their first round matches. But Day and Terman were knocked out by Oetting and White-Baer, and Dlouhy and Walsh fell to Allgood and Eichelberger in the second round.
