Athletes from the Metro area enjoyed a fabulous weekend at the state track meets in Des Moines with 10 gold medals, 11 silver medals, seven bronze medals and two handsome trophies.

As a result, the Metro Sports Report is honoring all of these track stars as the Metro Spotlight Athletes of the Week.

Josh Evans of Linn-Mar collected four gold medals in the 800, 1600, 3200 and distance medley with Austin Fielder, Tim Wolfe and Duggan Trenary.

Stephanie Jenks of Linn-Mar claimed two gold medals in the 1500 and 3000. Curtis McCrary of Linn-Mar won the long jump, giving the Lions seven titles overall.

The Cedar Rapids Jefferson girls captured the 4x200 relay and sprint medley relay. And the Cedar Rapids Prairie boys won the 4x800 relay as part of the Metro's golden haul.

In addition to all that gold, Evans ran the fastest 1600 in state history (4:06.32) and set a Class 4A state meet record in the 3200 (9:00.97). The Lions also set a 4A state meet record in the distance medley in 3:24.39 with Evans on the anchor.

Jenks ran an Iowa all-time best of 9:24.67 in the 3000. The Kennedy boys set a Class 4A state meet record in the shuttle hurdle relay in the preliminaries, but Waukee broke that record and beat the Cougars in the finals.

Mitch Pritts, Matt Lorenz, Ross Adams and Tysen VanDraska won the 4x800 relay for Prairie.

Abbie Ranschau, Jasmine Blue, Morgan Meese and Lucy Schneekloth captured the 4x200 relay for Jefferson. Maddie Ranschau, Abbie Ranschau, Schneekloth and Blue won the sprint medley.

The Linn-Mar boys finished second in the Class 4A team standings and the Kennedy boys finished third, earning handsome trophies for their schools.
The Prairie boys placed eighth in the standings.

The Jefferson girls finished fourth in the Class 4A team standings and the Linn-Mar girls placed sixth.

The Metro Sports Report normally salutes one male and one female with the Metro Spotlight Awards, but this was a special week that deserved special honors.
