

3 Metro players make INA all-state

Written by Metro Sports Report
Tuesday, 18 March 2014 09:37 -

Jordan Bohannon of Linn-Mar, Jacob Olson of Cedar Rapids Jefferson and Adam McDermott of Xavier have been named to the Iowa Newspaper Association (INA) all-state basketball teams.

Bohannon, a 6-foot-1 guard, made second team all-state in Class 4A. He averaged 17.6 points this season as a sophomore.

Olson, a 6-0 guard, also made second team all-state in Class 4A. He averaged 20.7 points as a senior.

McDermott, a 6-4 guard, made third team all-state in Class 3A. He averaged 16.5 points as a junior.

Wyatt Lohaus, who helped Iowa City West win its third Class 4A title in a row, was named Mr. Basketball. Lohaus will play in college at Northern Iowa.