Linn-Mar got a pair of goals from junior Daniel Luzindya in the final and the No. 5 Lions downed Muscatine, 2-0, to capture the Challenger Cup soccer title on Saturday at Linn-Mar Stadium.

Earlier, the Lions downed Center Point-Urbana 10-0 and Davenport Central 1-0 to advance to the title game. Muscatine advanced to the final with a 9-0 win over South Tama and a 3-0 victory over North Scott.

Senior Jared Belin posted all three shutouts in goal for the Lions.
