

Linn-Mar divers take top 3 spots

Written by Metro Sports Report

Thursday, 30 October 2014 21:41 - Last Updated Thursday, 30 October 2014 22:12

Linn-Mar's Mikaela Lengwin scored 457.50 points to win the district diving championship Thursday night at the Linn-Mar Aquatic Center.

Teammates Alyssa Deuso (438.10) and Georgia Sanderson (408.80) finished second and third. The next three spots were claimed by Kennedy, headed up by Carolyn Simon at 376.55 points. Washington's Amara Taylor was seventh. All seven divers have qualified for the state meet.

The diving points will be added to the team totals at the swimming portion of the district meet that begins at noon Saturday at Linn-Mar.

Here are the results of Metro-area divers.

1 Mikaela Lengwin (LM), 457.50; 2 Alyssa Deuso (LM) 438.10; 3. Georgia Sanderson, (LM) 408.80; 4. Carolyn Simon (K) 376.55; 5. Jayden Lovell (K) 362.90; 6. Courtney Fisher (K) 358.55; 7. Amara Taylor (W) 345.05.